1.Title

Rabaul Chushingura

2.Logline

Immediately after the war, a plan to stage a performance of the drama Chushingura is brought up at a Japanese POW camp. Kirishima, a former intelligence officer, works hard to make the plan a reality, but behind the scenes, a riot is being planned by officers who do not accept Japan's defeat in the war. The theater turns into a battlefield, but the play ends in tears thanks to the friendship that transcends the hatred between the Japanese and Australian soldiers who once risked their lives fighting against one another. A moving tale based on a true story.
