A soon-to-be-twenty-year-old young man is rushed to the hospital unconscious after being assaulted by a group of street toughs. As he promised earlier, the boy's phone sends his girlfriend a list of the ten most important things that have happened to him in his life up to that point day by day. However, the last one never arrives and the young man passes away. When the last message is found after his death, his family are in tears.
